Life Statement

If I were to try and capture the essence of who I am in words, I would say that William Hunt is willing to take the risk for the adventure and experience even if it means being embarrassed.

I've had many great opportunities in life that I have tried to take advantage of in order to grow as a person. I've climbed Mt. Sinai to the top. I've seen the pyramids of Giza and Saqqara. I've dug for dinosaurs in the Eastern hills of Wyoming while tent camping for 6 weeks in the elements. I've toured the 7 churches of Turkey. I've motorcycled all around Israel and island hopped on motorcycles with my wife in Greece. I've participated in an archeological dig in Jordan, built churches, helped people medically and taught unique Biblical principles to many (1,000's). I've had missionary journeys on the Amazon River in Brazil to adventures in Costa Rica, Fiji, Mexico, Honduras and Zambia. In Africa, I became familiar with malaria first hand by suffering with it myself. I saw that gigantic needle's effect on that hellacious fever. I've crisscrossed the US, Canada and Greece around 300,000 miles on motorcycles. I've participated in more extreme sports: white water rafting; kayaking; zip lining 100' above jungles in central America; scuba dived; I've even docked at 7000' with my dad while skydiving above the Central Texas landscape. I've entertained angels and defected to serve Jesus Christ after He called me to know Him. Since then, He has blessed me immensely.

I've had all these opportunities presented which I have tried to live to the fullest. But most of all, I have been married 23 years to the best spouse I could have ever imagined. My wife, Audrey, has inspired me to be the best man for the Lord I can be and the Lord definitely favored me with her. (Proverbs 18:22).

No matter where the Lord leads me next, I have seen enough to know that His plan is much better than my own. And even if it looks hopeless, I know He was with the 3 Hebrew boys in that fire; He was with Daniel in the lions den; He opened all the prisoners chains with Paul and Silas; He was with Jonah and Joseph and a whole host of others. He has shown me a number of times that His protection was with me. So wherever I end up, I pray the faith of Jesus leads me.
